MEMORANDUM OF LAW OF WILLIAM G. ELLIEN, M.D. IN OPPOSITION TO JASON E. BENSON'S MOTION FOR AN ORDER COMPELLING DISCLOSURE
OR DISCOVERY AND FOR EXPENSES AND SANCTIONS

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Jason E. Benson ("Benson") has filed a complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1983 against Ronald Long, M.D. ("Long") and William G. Ellien, M.D. ("Ellien") contending that they provided inappropriate medical care to him while he was incarcerated by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Long and Ellien both filed motions to dismiss which the Court denied. The Court has recently ordered that Benson be deposed in response to a motion by Ellien. Benson filed a motion for an order compelling disclosure or discovery and for expenses and sanctions on June 1, 2001. This Court recently ordered the defendants to respond to the motion. Ellien's counsel never received a copy of the motion.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Ellien incorporates by reference as if set forth herein in full the procedural history of the case set forth above.

III. ISSUES PRESENTED

Should the Court direct Benson to serve a copy of the motion for an order compelling disclosure or discovery and for expenses and sanctions upon Ellien's counsel so Ellien's counsel can respond?

IV. ARGUMENT

Ellien's counsel never received a copy of the plaintiff's motion for an order compelling disclosure or discovery and for expenses and sanctions. An examination of the file shows no such motion. Ellien's counsel respectfully requests that Benson serve another copy of the motion. Ellien's counsel is willing to pay for reasonable copying charges.

To the extent that the motion seems to contend that Ellien did not provide discovery to Benson. All discovery requests of Benson were answered fully to the extent that appropriate objections were raised.

V. CONCLUSION

In the light of the foregoing William G. Ellien, M.D. respectfully requests that Benson serve a copy of the motion for an order compelling disclosure or discovery and for expenses and sanctions upon his counsel.
